Email Prayer Ministry

I have been sending requests out as soon as I get them and have a computer available. I monitor the requests so as not to invade privacy. When there is a question about appropriateness, I consult Fr. Scot.

Flo Lowrey

Al-Anon Family Group of Keller

We continue to feel strongly that we are helping those in our community. We have newcomers almost every week as well as those who return each week.

Those in attendance are spouses, family members and parents of alcoholics and drug addicts.

I am grateful that St. Martin has opened its doors to Al-Anon for the purpose of helping so many.

Evie Larrimore

Hope Group of Narcotics Anonymous

There are no changes.

Kay Nilram

Quiet Committee

Mary Anderson has resigned and a new head has not been named.

Prayer Shawl

The Prayer Shawl Ministry has given out 31 Prayer Shawls. By the end of Oct., we will also donate 25 chemo caps to a local Hospice and 20 mats to local shelters in the area. – Kathy Wilkinson
